Dear CITA:

On behalf of my client, B-W-A, and with regard to the Commercial Availability Request accepted for consideration on January 6, 2009¹, I submit the following modification to the product description with respect to the note on classification of the finished product:

CURRENT TEXT:

“NOTE: In the finishing process, in the event that the polyester filament content breaks and turns into fibers, the finished fabric's specifications may fall under HTS classifications 5516.92 and 5516.93, for woven fabrics of 100% artificial staple fiber.”

MODIFIED TEXT:

“NOTE: In the finishing process, in the event that the polyester filament content breaks and turns into fibers, the finished fabric's specifications may fall under HTS classifications 5516.92 and 5516.93, for woven fabrics of artificial staple fiber.”

Sincerely,
